

Learning for fun and pleasure

A variety of courses and activities for retirees

Classes conducted by seniors for seniors

Convenient local venues

Our classes

- Combine learning with laughter
- Are held during the day to suit the retired lifestyle
- Provide a forum for contact with like-minded people
- Take place in a friendly and relaxed environment
- No exams; no formal qualifications needed
- For a small annual fee, you may attend unlimited classes, subject to availability.

What types of classes does Sydney U3A
offer?

Book Groups

Literature

From Chaucer to Henry Lawson ...

... from Shakespeare to Arthur Miller ...

... and some creative writing
to do yourself

Art Appreciation

From Da Vinci to Picasso ...

... or create your own masterpiece

Music Appreciation

From the Classics
to Modern Jazz ...

... or play a tune yourself

Languages

Sprechen Sie Deutsch?

Si? ... Muy bien.

Au revoir, Messieurs

History

The Age of the Dinosaurs, Babylon
Louis XIV ...

... and Captain Cook

We watch movies together

We travel anywhere in our armchairs

Tai Chi ...

... and more

Bushwalking ...

Sydney U3A

Has over 6000 members in the metropolitan area

Has been active since 1988

Is self-supporting and run by its members

Contact details:

By telephone: 02 9262 2702

By fax: 02 9262 2452

Email: mail@sydneyu3a.org

Check our website for more details or contact us for the full Course List