

On a large computer monitor, laptop etc. the home page looks something like the picture below. Important links to the left of the screen can be easily seen. When viewed on a tablet, phone etc. the page is automatically altered to fit the smaller screen and the links are not there. They can usually be found right at the bottom of your devices screen. To make finding the Newsletters easy a direct link has been made.

