

Picnic Invitation

To celebrate the fact that we all got through this very different and sometimes difficult year, I think we should have another picnic/BBQ! An early Christmas celebration!

We're now allowed to have 30 people gather for an outdoor event. So, why not gather where we can be outdoors, physically distance and enjoy meeting up again and having a chat face to face, not just on Zoom! Regardless of the weather, there is plenty of shelter. I'll send out details of the exact location on the Monday before.

Date: Wednesday 25th November at 1200hrs

Place: Nurragingy Reserve, Knox Rd, Doonside. It's a flat walk from Doonside Station.

There is seating for > 30, electric BBQ's and toilets are close by. You will need to bring everything and remember, no sharing.

If you'd like to come, email me, Sue, at sueb0356@gmail.com
