

The Gift

We talked about our 'fight', but remembered then - the 'gift'.
(We just changed around the letters - the 'H' had made the rift).

I know we have some problems, and often disagree - But then we make it up again - your argument I see!

But do you get my point of view - the facts,
Not just the 'truth'?
To fight is not the answer - discussion brings the truce.

So 'F-i-g-h-t' without the
'H' spells 'G-i-f-t',
And though we always make it up
- your point of view I'll shift!
